Ananke at the Providence Business Expo 2009

Providence, Rhode Island – April 24, 2009

Understanding that there are opportunities for growth in today's challenging economy, Ananke IT Solutions announced today that they will make an investment in the Rhode Island business community by exhibiting at the Greater Providence Chamber of Commerce 2009 Business EXPO, taking place at the Rhode Island Convention Center May 5 & 6. This will be the third year Ananke has participated as an exhibitor in this event.

At this year's Expo, Ananke IT Solutions will be showcasing two of their newest services; ProWatch Monitoring and Web Design 1-2-3 at booths 335 & 337. An Ananke Web Specialist and computer technicians will be available to meet with visitors at the Expo to discover ways to save a significant amount of money on their IT services.

Web Design 1-2-3 is an affordable solution designed to create a professional web presence for small to mid-sized businesses within a reasonable time-frame and for an affordable price. Ananke's ProWatch offers hassle-free network monitoring services that can save businesses money and help to restore peace of mind.

"The Providence Business EXPO provides us with a great opportunity to showcase our services and demonstrate to the Rhode Island business community how we can help them reduce their IT costs by 15-30%," said Robert Miner, Director of Sales at Ananke. "We have made an investment in Rhode Island and want to help local businesses save money during these troubled economic times. We succeed when our clients succeed; it's a win-win situation", added Miner.
