Ananke to Host 2nd Annual "Christmas at Richmond Square" for Children in Need

PROVIDENCE, RHODE ISLAND - December 5, 2008

Ananke IT Solutions is delighted to partner with Dr. Anait Azarian to provide her patients in need with a round of holiday cheer at Ananke's 2nd Annual "Christmas at Richmond Square" Celebration. Last year, Ananke and other local businesses, donated time, money, and a lot of heart to provide thirty of Dr. Ana's patients with a full spread buffet, warm clothes, toys, and stockings filled with goodies. Each child was also given a "Make a Wish Foundation" keepsake ornament engraved with their name.

"My daughters were the recipients of the generosity and kindness of your company and it was truly heartwarming for all of us there. The experience of seeing the children's faces as they watched Santa and his elves work their magic is something I will never forget", wrote one attendee in a letter to Ananke. "Please know that the caring that was shown will be remembered and cherished by these children for years to come."

This year Ananke has set a goal to double the number of children being sponsored. "We are reaching out to local businesses and individuals for monetary donations to provide more than 60 children with another special celebration," says Jorge Rivera of Ananke. Help Ananke provide these children in need with a holiday to remember.

The cost is approximately $100.00 per child and Ananke will be accepting donations until December 17th. Every little bit counts and anyone interested in making a donation can:

Send a check payable to:

About Dr. Anait Azarian

Dr. Ana is a licensed clinical child psychologist and a board-certified expert in treating traumatic stress disorders, operating out of her office at Richmond Square. She has dedicated her career to working with children who have been physically, psychologically, and/or sexually abused. Many of these children now live in group homes, foster care, and other living situations that are far from ideal, especially around the holidays.
